LORETTA A. PRESKA

Senior United States District Judge

Dear Judge Preska,

I was assigned to represent Derek Jones in the above matter. For the reasons stated herein, I respectfully request an adjournment of the sentencing hearing.

On May 31, 2022, I was appointed CJA counsel to Mr. Jones, after he submitted a request for a new attorney. The case is scheduled for a sentencing on June 15. I am currently away on a previously scheduled 2-week teaching assignment in Iceland. In light of this, and in order to allow for sufficient time to review the pertinent documents and consult with my client about the case going forward, I respectfully request an adjournment.

Further, I propose that if any motions need to be filed in this case, the motion schedule be set as follows: July 22 for defense counsel to file motions, August 19 for the Government to respond, and a court appearance during the week of September 12 for either a decision/hearing on the motion(s), or to proceed with a sentencing hearing.

I have discussed this matter with the Government, and they have no objection to adjourning the sentencing hearing from June 15. However, the Government will separately submit a response to the proposed timeline.

I thank the Court for its consideration. Should you require any additional information, please do
